Due to unforeseen circumstances, the conference program may change from that shown on the website at the time of booking. Select Biosciences reserves the right to alter the venue, conference dates and/or speakers and content at its sole discretion. No refunds are offered to delegates, sponsors or exhibitors under these circumstances, rather Select Biosciences will rollover a delegate registration or exhibitor/sponsor participation to another Select Biosciences of their choice at no extra charge.

Select Biosciences are however able to transfer a delegate registration to another person within your organization at no charge--Please contact Select Biosciences to make any changes or updates.

Sponsorships or exhibit bookings cannot be moved to another Select Biosciences conference and no refunds are offered if sponsor/exhibitor decides to cancel after booking. If sponsor or exhibitor decides to cancel a booking, then Select Biosciences has NO liability to offer a refund or rollover sponsorship/exhibit to another conference.

Cancellation by Select Biosciences

On occasion, due to lack of an economic number of attendees or other reasons, it may be necessary for Select Biosciences to cancel the event to which you are registered. We will endeavor to inform you of such a decision no later than 4 weeks in advance of the scheduled start date of the event in question. In this case our liability is limited to a full refund of any monies already received in respect of our registration. We will specifically not be liable for any travel or accommodation you may have booked in anticipation of attending the event nor any consequential expenses.
